STUDIO CITY, CA – May 22, 2023 – Torrey DeVitto ("Twas the Night Before Christmas," "Chicago Med"), Yannis Tsimitselis ("Mary Mary Mary") and Marina Sirtis ("Star Trek: Picard," "Star Trek: The Next Generation") "Love's Greek to Me," a new, original movie premiering Saturday, June 10 (8 p.m. ET/PT), on Hallmark Channel as part of the network's June Weddings programming event. The movie shot partially on location on the island of Santorini.

Ilana (DeVitto) and her Greek boyfriend Mike (Tsimitselis) travel to Santorini for his sister Alex's (Katerina Konstas) wedding, where all his relatives immediately welcome her with open arms. When Mike surprises Ilana by asking her to marry him at the same lighthouse where his father proposed many years prior, his well-meaning – and overly enthusiastic – mother Athena (Sirtis) shifts into overdrive, excited to be gaining another daughter. Ilana gets caught in the vortex of Athena's attempts to "help," including purchasing a wedding gown for her future daughter-in-law and booking the church...even though Ilana and Mike aren't rushing to set a date or plan on having a big fat Greek wedding. As Alex's big day nears and the preparations ramp up, Ilana becomes more uneasy about what the future may hold for her and Mike, leading her to wonder if they're truly meant to be together or if love is all Greek to her.

"Love's Greek to Me" is from Hallmark Media. Cameron Johann is executive producer. The movie is produced by Jeffery Beach and Phillip Roth. Producers are Kristina Kambitova and Maria Komninos. Michael Robison directed from a script by Joie Botkin.
