

JOCELYN HUDON AND JAKE MANLEY DIVE INTO
'LOVE IN THE MALDIVES,' A NEW, ORIGINAL MOVIE PREMIERING APRIL 1, ON HALLMARK CHANNEL

STUDIO CITY, CA – March 21, 2023 – Jocelyn Hudon (“The Strain”) and Jake Manley (Infamous) star in “Love in the Maldives,” a new, original movie premiering Saturday, April 1 (8 p.m. ET/PT), on Hallmark Channel.

Rae Parker (Hudon) has a very fabulous, single life that attracts thousands of readers to her monthly travel column. Rae is surprised when her editor wants to send her to the world’s most romantic vacation destination – The Conrad Maldives. She’s an adventurous spirit and staying at the luxurious Muraka makes it difficult for her to find the type of experiences she needs to write an article worthy of her column. It doesn’t help that Rae is terribly afraid of the open ocean and a hotel that floats in the middle of it. After a few failed solo attempts, Rae realizes she needs some guidance and support to undertake some of the challenges outside of her comfort zone. The Conrad’s Guest Experience Expert, Jared Joseph (Manley), steps in and makes it his personal mission to give Rae the adventure she’s looking for...

“Love in the Maldives” is from Johnson Production Group. Timothy O. Johnson and Joseph Wilka are executive producers. Juliana Wimbles is co-executive producer, and David Boyles serves as producer. Colin Theys directed from a teleplay by Juliana Wimbles and Colin Theys.
