

WHILE ATTEMPTING TO PLAY MATCHMAKER
NAZNEEN CONTRACTOR AND WES BROWN
FALL IN LOVE WITH EACHOTHER IN LOVE ON THE DANUBE: LOVE SONG
NETWORK PREMIERE ON HALLMARK CHANNEL MAY 17

Currently Streaming on Hallmark+

Nazneen Contractor (“Children Ruin Everything”) and Wes Brown (“A Biltmore Christmas”) star in Love on The Danube: Love Song, getting its Hallmark Channel network premiere on May 17 at 8:00 p.m. ET/PT; currently streaming on Hallmark+.

While traveling with her mother on a European Riverboat cruise, Sarah (Contractor) meets Jack (Brown) who is traveling with his father. They immediately form a connection and realize their parents are also hitting it off. Sarah and Jack devise a plan to set up their parents, including coordinating times for them to casually meet and even taking them shopping for their “dates.” The more time they spend trying to engineer a romance between their parents, the more their parents discover that Sarah and Jack have a genuine romantic connection themselves and begin plotting their own matchmaking scheme. Upon realizing their own connection, Sarah and Jack decide to pursue their romance.

Love on the Danube: Love Song is from Hallmark Media. Leif Bristow and Michael McLaughlin are executive producers. Agnes Bristow, Borga Dorter, Hubert Toint and Mark Vennis serve as producers. The film is directed by Terry Ingram from a script by Agnes Bristow.

###

MEDIA CONTACTS:

Tori Morris: Torimorris@hallmarkmedia.com