STUDIO CITY, CA – December 23, 2021 – Lyndsy Fonseca (“Next Stop, Christmas,” “How I Met Your Mother”), Kimberley Sustad (“The Nine Kittens of Christmas,” “Travelers”), Erica Durance (“Smallville,” “Open by Christmas”) and Barbara Niven (“Chesapeake Shores,” “The Christmas Contest”) star in “North to Home,” an All-New Hallmark Movies & Mysteries Original premiering Sunday, January 9 (9 p.m. ET/PT).

Suzanne McBride (Niven) is excited to spend her birthday with her family. It will be the first time that her three adopted daughters will be together in years. This seems like a great time for a family reunion, but the sisters are each wrestling with unique challenges that threaten to derail this special occasion. Workaholic Hannah (Durance) is hiding a life-changing secret. Beth (Sustad), a stay-at-home-mom is in the midst of a personal crisis after getting a once in a lifetime offer to go back to work. The youngest, Posy (Fonseca), is feeling pressure from her parents to take over the family restaurant. She feels a sense of obligation, but her heart is drawn to a life as a mountain climber. And the fact that she’s falling for a handsome new neighbor is only adding to her stress. Under the weight of these issues, and some hidden resentments, Suzanne’s dreams of the perfect birthday soon unravel. But will the McBride sisters bond be strong enough to survive this time together?

“North to Home” is from Timeless Pictures Inc. Alexandre Coscas, Ben C. Silverman and Michael R. Goldstein serve as executive producers. Cynde Harmon serves as producer. Ali Liebert directed from a script by S.W. Sessions.
